GET TO KNOW OUR RESIDENTIAL COMPLEX

Olea Living is a new, thoughtfully designed residential complex of 12 homes in Stavros, Thessaloniki, just 170 meters from the sea. Set in a peaceful and elegant location, the natural landscape meets refined aesthetics and contemporary architecture.

The residences offer spacious, bright interiors, excellent ergonomics, and private gardens for moments of relaxation. Modern design, energy-efficient window systems, and high-specification thermal insulation ensure comfort and tranquility throughout the year.

Ideal for both permanent living and holiday use, Olea Living combines the serenity of seaside living with immediate access to the beach and the area's essential infrastructure.

Each residence features a functional living and kitchen area, offering comfort for everyday use and ease in space organization. The bedroom is designed for relaxation, while the bathroom follows a modern and practical design approach.

The residences include a private outdoor area—either a terrace or a balcony—allowing residents to enjoy the tranquility of views over the shared swimming pool and the lush green garden. It is a space that encourages small moments of everyday relaxation, whether in the morning or in the afternoon.

With careful design, the residences balance contemporary aesthetics with functionality. Both the interior and exterior spaces have been thoughtfully planned to meet real everyday needs, offering a comfortable and practical foundation for daily living.

BUILT FOR COMFORT

- The roof is constructed with a sloped concrete slab and features a thermal insulation system, with the final covering made of tiles. This construction ensures high energy efficiency, effective protection against weather conditions, and increased durability over time.
- Every detail of the construction has been carefully designed according to the most modern standards of quality and safety.
- The apartments at Olea Living feature spacious balconies, designed to offer private moments of relaxation and unobstructed enjoyment of the natural surroundings.

HIGH-QUALITY CONSTRUCTION

Each residence is constructed with meticulous attention to quality and detail, ensuring lasting value and comfort.

We use top-quality materials and techniques that guarantee durability and functionality.

From insulation to surfaces, every material is carefully selected to provide strength and comfort for everyday living.

Window Frame Warranty  GUARANTEE

At Iliadis Constructions, we guarantee the quality of our window systems—each residence comes with a certified standard of quality.

Green Building

At Iliadis Constructions, we emphasize sustainability, designing energy-efficient homes with eco-friendly materials and a reduced environmental footprint.
